FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Daily Times.

A Day Spent by the Opposition.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Jan. 22

Nothing of importance has been done in either House to-day. The Senate has been engaged in the discussion of the Kansas question, but no vote has been taken. The House has been occupied with the Private Calendar, and has passed a number of bills of a local character.

Mr. Clayton, in the Senate, to-day, in the course of a brief debate on the Naval Retiring Board matter, gave forcible expression to the views I have heretofore suggested in regard thereto—namely, that neither the Senate nor Congress can revise the action of the Board, or restore officers dropped, or retired from service. A few remarks by Mr. Mallory, Chairman of the Naval Committee, on the same subject, seemed to indicate the disposition of the Committee also to sustain the Board.

A WORTHY NATURALIZER.

Rev. T. M. Hanmer, of this city, is now in New-York, I believe, soliciting aid in behalf of a Church enterprise with which he is connected. As he is doubtless a stranger to a large portion of the clergy of New-York, I desire to commend him to their personal regard, and to say that the enterprise in behalf of which he appeals is one in every way worthy the consideration of evangelical Christians. His parish is a new one, and is the first Welsh Church of this city, which contains a population of about eight thousand, and no Calvinistic Church other than the one of which Mr. Hanmer is the pastor, and that in its infancy, struggling into existence. It is located, but, as the intelligent possess little wealth, has undertaken and been enabled to erect a house of worship, which has been dedicated, and is still much in debt, about one thousand dollars more are needed to put the society upon an established basis. This Mr. Hanmer hopes to find in New-York. I am not in the enterprise.

XXXVth CONGRESS—First Session.

The Senate has adjourned to Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Jan. 22.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. BOYCE offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Ways and Means be instructed to inquire into the expediency of reducing the duties on tea and coffee, and report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. BOYCE moved the previous question.

Mr. HOUSTON hoped the gentleman would withdraw the motion, as he desired to say a few words in relation to the matter.

Mr. BOYCE declined to withdraw the motion.

The previous question was then seconded, and the main question ordered to be put.

Mr. HOUSTON asked the yeas and nays on the passage of the resolution.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. HOUSTON said he was opposed to the resolution, because it would be impossible to reduce the duties on tea and coffee, and at the same time maintain the present revenue. He was in favor of reducing the duties on tea and coffee, but
